

I do not feel the NJ DO NOT Call list should be overturned.
States are allowed to make stricter laws, they need the minimum which is what is happening here. Just because I occasionally do business with a vendor does not mean I should have to be subjected to unsolicited calls again and again. It is an invasion.